TRAINING OF NAPOLEON'S HORSES

Taught to Endure Every Possible Condition for Emperor's Safety.

London, Nov. 18.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—In connection with the accident to King George, who sustained severe injuries in a fall from his horse, the London papers recall the precautions that were taken lest Napoleon should appear at a disadvantage on horseback. The Emperor was not a first class horseman, and his horses were always specially trained. Here is a description of the methods employed:

"They were trained to remain perfectly steady under tortures of every description: to receive blows about the head; drums were beat, pistols and fire crackers were fired in their ears, flags waved before their eyes, clumsy packages, and sometimes even sheep and pigs, were thrown between their legs. None were deemed sufficiently trained until the Emperor could, without the least difficulty, pull them up short at full gallop, which was his favorite pace."

AUNT JANE OVERSTREET.

Aunt Jane Overstreet, known to almost every man, woman and child in Bryan as "Aunt Sweet Jane," one of the oldest negro mamies in Brazos County, died at her home here Monday and was buried in the colored cemetery yesterday. Aunt Jane was nearing the century mark in age and this is given as the principal cause of her death. She had quite a large number of friends both among the white and colored people of Bryan who regret to learn of her death.

HINTS FOR THE HOUSEHOLD.

Carelessly Washed Utensils Spoil Flavor of Cooking.

Pockets in Aprons—Some people find the pockets on kitchen aprons most convenient when set on the left side.

Nothing will spoil the flavor of cooking quicker than carelessly washed cooking utensils.

The trimmings that are left after frenching chops can be used if cooked in casserole with vegetables.

Men's clothes should always be brushed and kept on hangers if possible, rather than folded away.

Piece bags are excellent made from netting of scrim—then one can find readily whenever one is looking for.

When patching waists it's a good idea to fasten the waist inside an embroidery frame while the work proceeds.

Chicken cooked the day it is killed is not so well flavored as one that has been drawn and placed on the ice for a day.

Canned Vegetables—There is great convenience as well as economy in buying canned vegetables by the case, if your family is rather large.

Butter will keep better if it is removed from its wrapping and placed in a clean dish and put in the bottom of the refrigerator.

AS THE NEWS BREAKS

(By Associated Press.)

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 18.—Veterans of newspaper work in Texas, who compose the membership of the Texas Editorial Association, are here today for the annual meeting of that picturesque body. Meetings will be held for three days, beginning today. Preparations have been made to accommodate an unusual number of members by the officers of the association, of which John R. Lunsford of Fort Worth is president and Col. Hamp Cook of Houston is secretary. Special excursion rates have been granted by the railroads, and Mr. Lunsford is looking forward to a greater gathering than the association has ever held before. The members must have served thirty-three years in the newspaper craft, but are compelled to pay no dues or initiation fees.

The association was formed in 1912 by Col. Frank P. Holland at the Oakshore Club near Rockport.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 18.—The General Baptist Convention of Texas opened sessions here today in the hall of the House of Representatives at the State Capitol. Delegates have been pouring into Austin on every train for three days and local committees have prepared for between 4,000 and 5,000 visitors. The convention is expected to adjourn Monday night.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 18.—An appropriation of $100,000 will be asked of the Thirty-fifth Legislature for the establishment of a military training school at Camp Mabry, three miles northwest of Austin. Former State Senator McGregor is pushing the project, which is said to have the endorsement of Governor Ferguson. It is proposed that the school could be made headquarters of the adjutant general and his officers and men could be trained there for commissioned officers just as is done by the Federal government at West Point.

An appropriation of $20,000 was made by the last Legislature for a fireproof armory at Camp Mabry, which is now in process of construction.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 18.—It has been virtually determined by the State warehouse managers to recommend the exclusive use of cotton bagging for baling cotton in Texas. The supply of jute, which has been used heretofore, is said to be limited this year on account of the extensive use of it by the belligerent Nations. The warehouse and marketing law empowers the managers to prescribe the kind of bagging to be used in licensed warehouses.

BRYAN VS. MARLIN TOMORROW.

After several attempts at scheduling games to be played here during this season, the Bryan high school team has at last secured a game with the fast Marlin high school team to be played on Bryan Baptist Academy's grounds tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Despite the rather unusual hour it will be played, this will no doubt be the hardest game the local high school will play this season. Marlin comes to Bryan with a string of victories to her credit for the season and is also claimants of the high school championship of Central Texas. The Bryan boys, however, also have one of the best teams in the history of the school and they feel confident of being able to more than hold their own.

Prof. Reese, who is managing the team, says they have tried very hard this season to bring other teams to Bryan and show the local fans what the boys can really do, but the difficulties encountered has made this almost impossible, and all he asks is for football lovers to take about an hour off tomorrow morning and come out and see his players in action.

This fast little game will serve as a good appetizer for the larger contest in the afternoon, and good football is assured. The game will be called promptly at 10 o'clock. Admission 15c and 25c.

ACTION OF SINGLE SPOONFUL SURPRISES MANY

Bryan people who bought the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-Lika, are surprised at the INSTANT effect of a SINGLE SPOONFUL. This remedy is so complete a bowel cleanser that it is used successfully in appendicitis. Adler-Lika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels and ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it the gasses rumble and pass out. E. R.
